

OUR MISSION

St. John's Jesuit develops Christian leaders. As a Catholic school in the Jesuit tradition, we inspire each student to achieve his greatest potential in a diverse, Christ-centered atmosphere distinguished by academic success and service as a Man for Others.

“Seek grace in the smallest things and you will also find grace to accomplish, to believe in, and to hope for the greatest things.”

— St. Peter Faber, S.J.

The smallest, most seemingly insignificant things happen every day that connect students from the idea of the Grad-at-Grad to the reality of what it means to be Jesuit educated. A trusted relationship with a counselor, an expectation to serve, tutoring support that builds academic confidence, the opportunity to challenge ideas in an environment that embraces critical thinking – day after day these experiences bridge a student at St. John’s Jesuit from what he could be, to what he is; intellectually competent, loving, religious, open to growth, and committed to doing justice. This transformation cannot happen without support. Generosity is the foundation of possibility for Titans present and future. Every donor makes a difference. Every gift helps build Christian leaders, connecting the mission of Jesus Christ to our present world through a life lived as a Man for Others.

“ So often our graduates service, they embrace the opportunity to live a life as a Man for Others. ”

WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

It is my privilege to share with you the St. John's Jesuit Annual Report for 2020. As you may have noticed from the cover, this year's theme is about ways we create bridges, as in finding the common space between two different groups or entities. If ever there was a time, I believe this idea is especially relevant now, whether in regard to the strength of the SJJ brotherhood or engaging in service that connects us to our communities. My hope is that as you continue to read, it is obvious that strength for our future is rooted in the strength of our past.

As President, I have been blessed to get to know many St. John's Jesuit alumni across the country. In recent months, I have met with several graduates in Boston, Chicago, and Phoenix. Unfortunately, we are not yet able to gather for large alumni receptions; however, these smaller encounters have allowed for more in-depth dialogue. Through these conversations, I realized this group was a fairly accurate representation of the first 25 years of our school's history. Although time has passed in different ways for each, I found common take-aways from their experiences as a Titan. The first is what current students often refer to as “brotherhood.” Young men come to SJJ from all different backgrounds at a most formative time, sharing academic, retreat, service, social, athletic, and artistic experiences with each other, which often form lifelong bonds. Time and distance have only strengthened many of these relationships. My second realization is that so often our graduates do more than just serve when asked—they seek out service, they embrace the opportunity to live a life as a Man for Others. I attribute those inclinations, in part, to the foundation that was built during their high school years.

If you have received the 2020 Annual Report, it is likely that you have also played a role in bridging the history of St. John's Jesuit to what is still to come. Whether you are an alum, a past or current parent, or a friend, we are grateful for your ongoing support as we look ahead.

May God bless you,

Michael J. Savona '75
President

IN GRATITUDE

“ I want to humbly extend my thanks to scholarship donors for helping me attend St. John’s. This school has had such a profound impact on my life that I want to extend to others around me. Through sports like hockey and lacrosse, as well as by helping lead various retreats, I have been able to give back to the next generation of students. Without a scholarship, that would never have been possible.”

– Drew Dunphy '21

“ Because of my scholarship, I have been able to pursue running and academics at a top-of-the-line school. I also have learned to be a leader and serve my community. I will continue to make the generosity shown to me count.”

– Jakob Moon '22

“ I have not only thrived in a Jesuit education system, but also was brought into a loving community that allowed me to serve others and provide entertainment through my instruments. Thank you for allowing me to continue with this education and move on to college with experiences that will last a lifetime.”

– Michael Koperski '21

“ It is with great sincerity that I thank you for your gift, which has enabled me to further my education in numerous ways. Competing on my debate team for the last two years and getting the experience of traveling to the state finals was a special moment for me. I’m also grateful that I’ve been able to become a well-rounded individual here at SJJ.”

– Aaron Adira '21

“ My scholarship helps me do my best without worrying my family. I am grateful and will make sure that this opportunity that has been entrusted to me shall not be wasted. Thank you!”

– Kelechi Okere '22

“ Thank you for your generous donations towards scholarships. Without them, I would not be where I am now. I have grown so much in my time at SJJ and cannot wait to see what the next chapter holds.”

– Malachi Norrils '22

Thank you!

RAISING ST. JOHN'S JESUIT TO NEW HEIGHTS

Generosity is second nature to many in our Titan community. Often those who can give the most rise to the occasion with no desire for acknowledgement. These supporters make us stronger through an openness to give and a trust in leadership. The very first line of St. Ignatius' Prayer for Generosity, arguably his most famous work, said, "Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous." He did not bury this idea deep in the poem; he led with it. And some people paid attention.

In 2020, two generous families surpassed the one million dollar gift mark at SJJ, a rare milestone worth celebrating. When SJJ needed them, they were there. Their support, and the support of many others, has bridged possibility to the reality that SJJ is the premier academic, spiritual, and athletic school for boys in northwest Ohio.

Many thanks to our one-million-dollar donors. We could thank you a million times, but it would never be enough.

JUDGE RICHARD B. AND JANE MCQUADE

"I firmly believe the Jesuit education is the most outstanding type of education
anyone could get."

Anyone who has ventured through the halls of St. John's Jesuit has seen the name McQuade a few times, and especially over the doors of the theater inside the Carty Fox Commons. The Honorable Judge Richard B. McQuade and his wife, Jane, generous supporters of SJJ in so many ways over the last few decades, have recently surpassed the $1 million donation mark. Their gift of the theater years ago was because, as Judge said, "Fr. Don Vettese talked me into it." Always joking, he quickly praised Fr. Vettese, remarked on his "sales" skills, and was happy about the way the theater fit into the heart of the school.

The McQuades generally give to three major areas. The first is to a scholarship named for Timothy McQuade, the Judge's brother, who was killed in 1956; the scholarship goes to underprivileged young men who would never be able to attend SJJ without financial assistance. The second is to capital projects such as the McQuade Theater. The third is to projects that involve entrepreneurship and innovation. "This kind of thinking is 'Jesuit'; reaching out to find new ways to educate is exactly how Jesuits operate," McQuade said.

Although he is not a graduate of SJJ (the school had not yet been revived when he was in high school), his father is a graduate of the "old" St. John's, as are several uncles. Currently, he has two grandsons at the school, as well as four other grandsons at different Jesuit schools. "I guess their parents understood how firmly we believe in a Jesuit education," the Judge laughed. Judge speaks so highly of his father, who practiced his Jesuit values daily. "My dad was skilled in speaking, writing, and critical thinking. Early in my career as a lawyer, I practiced with my dad and saw these skills in action daily. He credited St. John's for them."

Later, Judge McQuade welcomed his opportunity to be on the Board of Trustees at SJJ. "I hoped that being on the Board would help me make sure that the skills Dad learned through his Jesuit education would carry on in other students," he said.

"I firmly believe the Jesuit education is the most outstanding type of education anyone could get."

MIKE THAMAN AND LISA GATHARD

“We believe in Jesuit education,” Mike Thaman, former Board member (2015-2020) and current SJJ parent, answered effortlessly, as a simple explanation to his family’s reason for donating $1 million to St. John’s Jesuit over the past 17 years. “My wife, Lisa Gathard, and I feel that the concepts of Men for Others and the Grad at Grad are excellent values that we wanted our sons to have in their lives.”

Mike is, himself, Jesuit-educated, having attended St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland. His father attended St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati. The Jesuit roots in his family run deep, and he and his wife were happy to have their sons continue the tradition at SJJ. “Our four Thaman boys all attended the Academy, as well as the high school. Our two boys from Guatemala came to live with us in eighth and ninth grade, and they began at the school right away.”

In all, the Thaman family boys include Hanssel Martinez-Guerra, Harry ’13, Jessi Martinez-Guerra ’15, Franklin Martinez-Guerra ’17, Louie ’18, Joey ’19, and Paul ’22. Two girls are part of the family, as well—Beatrice (St. Ursula Academy ’15) and Rosi (Notre Dame Academy ’23).

Mike and Lisa started giving to SJJ in 2004. In addition to consistently supporting important fundraisers such as Dinner Under the Dome, their focus has been on areas such as faculty professional development initiatives, the A+ Learning Center, student performance initiatives, Adopt-a-Student, and the 20/20 Jesuit Scholarship program.

“We believe in investing in people. We like to give gifts to areas that will have a big impact on the students
and the faculty.”

While they are supportive of the entire school, their gifts have most often centered on the educational aspects of the institution and on recognizing faculty for their efforts. Specifically, the Thamans underlined the following four areas on which to focus for maximum impact: improving homework completion in the Academy, a key factor for academic success; identifying struggling or at-risk students in the high school and providing intensive support services and supervision to get them on a path to academic success; increasing the orientation and skills training for incoming freshmen throughout their first year in the high school; and providing an additional pathway to calculus for students in the high school.

“We believe in investing in people,” Mike said. “We like to give gifts to areas that will have a big impact on the students and the faculty. While we don’t seek attention, we believe it’s important to encourage others to step up and give to significant causes.”

TITAN MAGIS TUITION PROGRAM ASSISTS FAMILIES OVER

The COVID-19 worldwide pandemic abruptly affected the financial well-being of many families across the country. The Titan community has been no exception, which prompted the launch of the Titan Magis Project to offer relief to families in need of unexpected tuition assistance. The immediate generosity of lead supporters Marc '79 and Joy Lautenbach, Marilyn Dittrich, and Matt '78 and Adria Mossing provided a strong foundation for this initiative, which helped 28 students return to St. John's Jesuit for the 2020–2021 school year. Support for Titan Magis Project continues to be critical to sustaining enrollment, as even more families have been impacted in the past year. For more information about supporting the Titan Magis Tuition Program, contact Nick Vargas '06, Director of Advancement, at (419) 720-0770 or nvargas@sjtitans.org.

"St. John's has always had a special place in our family's heart. While I was not necessarily a stellar student, St. John's prepared me to do well in college and, more importantly, do well in life. The educational and spiritual foundation that St. John's provided continues to sustain me today. At SJJ, an alum is always part of the family. We were delighted we had an opportunity in some small way to give back to create opportunities for others."

—Marc Lautenbach '79

"The circumstances of the pandemic have created added need, so we were more than willing to support this tuition relief initiative. My wife and I have always been strong supporters of education, as we believe it is so key to living a full life. The quality of education I received at SJJ made me who I am and set the stage for my career. For this reason, we focus our support on scholarships. In the face of COVID-19, families have been forced into difficult decisions—making this program even more important. We were happy to help."

—Matt Mossing '78

TROUBLED WATERS

THE BASSLER FAMILY/ANDREW BASSLER '25

"COVID-19 caused a whirlwind of a year for our family. As a physician's assistant, I was on the front line of COVID, working both in the ER and ICU. What started out as working overtime drastically changed when I was hospitalized in step-down ICU with COVID for 12 days. I left the hospital with a walker and home oxygen and was off work for nearly two months. My husband did his best working from home, attempting to hold down the fort with the kids, homework, and his own job. The financial impact of COVID was extreme because of the loss of income for weeks, along with the hospital bills that accumulated.

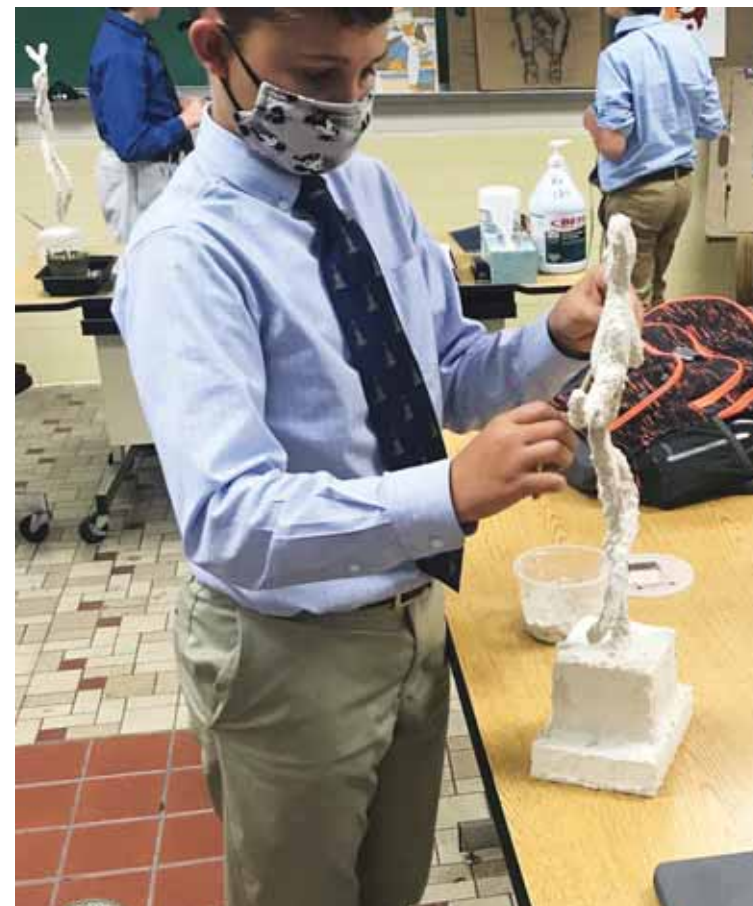

A big thank you to those who support the Titan Magis Tuition Project. Without you, Andrew's dream of attending St John's would have been solely that—a dream. Your support and assistance are truly helping change lives of local young men, like our son. We are eternally grateful."

THE HARRIS FAMILY/BRYCE HARRIS '24

"The pandemic caused a serious shift in our life, as it did to most of us. My husband and I both have our own businesses, and in March 2020, we were forced to shut our doors. We had no income from our businesses until we were able to reopen. My husband was closed until the end of May. I was able to partially open in June, but because my business runs the length of a school year, we didn't fully open until the end of August.

Because of this situation, I was very worried about keeping up with our bills. I contacted St. John's to seek help during these tough times. The school has been so good for our son, so I could not imagine him going anywhere else, and it would've broken his heart to have to leave. St. John's jumped right in and helped us in our time of need by decreasing our tuition amount, and this blessing could not have come at a better time. Because of the administration's generosity, our son was able to stay at this amazing school.

Not every school has been so helpful, but St. John's did not even bat an eye when trying to help others in need. We are so very grateful to St. John's and the Titan Magis Tuition Project. Thank you to everyone involved in this special program; we are truly grateful for you. Because of you, my son can continue to go to a school that we are so proud of."

PLANNED GIVING IS SUPPORT THAT SPANS BEYOND A LIFETIME

Generations of graduates care deeply for the future of St. John's Jesuit and want to ensure strategic growth and development for the school for decades to come. Through planned giving, our mission of forming Men for Others in northwest Ohio is secured, no matter the economic or political landscape. Those who include SJJ in their estate planning are indeed a group of like-minded individuals who hope to make the school strong and resilient for years to come. Known as the St. John Berchmans Legacy Society, these supporters strongly believe that what is being accomplished at St. John's Jesuit needs to continue going forward.

As our alumni population continues to grow, it is true that it is aging. In this regard, many of the earlier graduates are looking to support the school in ways they were unable to before. Those men, along with parents, grandparents, and friends of SJJ, make up a considerable group of people who can support St. John's Jesuit through planned giving techniques.

Planned giving can be achieved in several ways, including charitable bequests, annuities, stocks, life insurance policies, retirement plan assets, charitable trusts, and Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs). We advise prospective donors first consult with an attorney, accountant, or wealth planning professional to explore all the options. The Advancement Office will work diligently to make the process simple and transparent by initiating the gifting agreement with a simple form, known as a nonbinding "Letter of Intent."

Rick Rattay '77 has made St. John's Jesuit the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

GENEROUS DONATION FROM A CATHOLIC EDUCATION SUPPORTER

A dedicated father of nine, Thomas J. Mitchell of Maumee passed away in December. In his estate was a more-than-generous gift to St. John's Jesuit, a school he never attended but thoroughly admired.

Tom was a native Minnesotan who attended St. Mary's College for a year and a half. His time at a Catholic college made a lasting impression on him. Financial issues forced him to leave the school too soon, but he completed his degree at the University of Minnesota while working full time, getting married, and starting his family. But he never forgot his time at St. Mary's.

A few years later, Tom was asked to join a company in Ohio, Spartan Chemical, so he packed up his family and moved to Maumee. He and his wife raised their nine children there, becoming involved at St. Patrick of Heatherdowns parish, in local baseball organizations, and in many other community groups.

Tom's career advanced and so did his commitment to his church and neighborhood. He was beloved by the many people who worked with him—both at his company and in his many volunteer positions—but even more loved by his children,

"To Give and Not to Count the Cost."

"St. Ignatius memorialized this sentiment in his Prayer for Generosity. Simply put, the pursuit of Jesuit ideals, identity, and spirituality begins and ends with the SJJ community's commitment to generosity. We see these charitable efforts translated from concept to completion daily in the shape of scholarship initiatives, endowment efforts, athletic facility renovations, social justice, and beyond. We have witnessed firsthand through our three sons the profound effect SJJ has on young people's lives. Most important, SJJ has deservedly established and maintained its position as an elite academic, college prep institution through innovation—both in and out of the classroom. However, SJJ's ability to implement inventive new programs hinges on giving. In other words, the generosity undoubtedly allows us to lead...not follow...to be proactive...not reactive. Contributing a legacy gift ensures future generations will receive the benefits of an all-male Jesuit education. And that is the greatest 'gift' of all."

—Rick Rattay '77

siblings, 17 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Two of his grandsons attended SJJ, and Tom was thoroughly impressed by the Jesuits and their educational philosophies.

Tom's love of Catholic education—fostered at St. Mary's—caused him to generously leave a gift to not only SJJ, but to the other Toledo Catholic high schools, St. Mary's College, his local parish, and other Catholic institutions. His son Gerald said that nothing made his dad happier than giving to people who would benefit from a Catholic education.

SJJ thanks Thomas Mitchell and his family for their generosity.

BLUE & GOLD ANGELS

An exceptional level of giving to St. John's Jesuit will be recognized in a new way at SJJ. Supporters who have made a contribution of ten thousand dollars or more in the last twelve months are now known as known as Blue & Gold Angels. Their impact on the future of SJJ is lasting, equally matched by the impact they will have on the lives of future Titans.

EXCEPTIONAL SUPPORT FOR PERSONAL REASONS

“ I had a fabulous experience as a student at St. John's, which is why I give. The school's commitment to excellence has had a significant positive impact on the community over many years.”

—Dan '74 and Lynn Anderson
Retired, Former President of The Anderson's Inc., Retail Division

“ I give to St. John's because it was an important, shaping force in my life, especially the emphasis on service.”

—Gerry '76 and LizAnn Anderson
Executive Chairman, DTE Energy

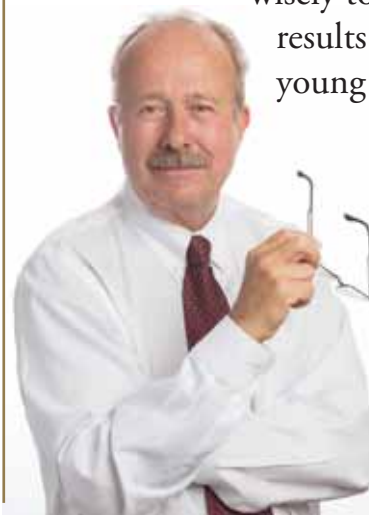

“ 'Men for Others' has been a guiding principle in my life. SJJ was a springboard for bigger and better things in my life.”

—Sean Connell '86, Owner,
*The Connell Group,
Market Research*

“ I've been involved with SJJ at the Board level for many years, which has allowed me to see first-hand how donated dollars are allocated and spent wisely to generate positive results in the lives of young men.”

—Wayne and Linda Milewski
*Financial Professional,
Savage and Associates, Inc.*

“ I support SJJ for the focus on developing future leaders with good values, strong academics, and well-rounded young adults.”

—George & Shari Isaac
*President/CEO GAI Capital Ltd. &
George Isaac Consulting*

“ Giving to St. John's is a way I can 'break the cycle' and make a better world.”

—Jamie '90 and Christine Happ
Wealth Management Advisor, Merrill Lynch

“My time at SJJ was one of the most formative experiences of my life. The motto of ‘Men for Others’ always stuck with me and remains a guiding principle in my personal and professional life. My mother passed away when I was a junior, and the SJJ community was there to support me. I always told myself that when (or if) I could repay what was given to me, I would. Many paid it forward to support me when I was struggling, and I hope to pay it forward for others.”

—Dan '95 and Beth Kleban
Co-Founder, Maine Beer Company

“I want to enable current and future SJJ students to have the same excellent academic, athletic, and character formation experiences as I did.”

—Matt '77 and Brenda Mitten
Professor of Law, Marquette University Law School/Executive Director, National Sports Law Institute

“St. John's Jesuit had a positive impact on my life and helped shape me into the man I am today. The memories, life lessons learned, and lifelong friends made while at St. John's are things that I don't take for granted. St. John's is a special place, and my hope is that it continues to shape and mold more young men for generations to come. I try to truly live out our motto of being a ‘Man for Others’ and continue to give back to the school that gave me so much.”

“ I give to St. John's to give young men the same opportunities I had. ”

—Marc '79 and Joy Lautenbach
President and CEO of Pitney Bowes

“ We support SJJ because of the support I received from faculty, including Carl Demarkowski, Butch Welling, and Richie Salmi, S.J. I still feel their influence on my life to this day. ”

—Joseph '78 and Janet Mitchell
*President,
Mitchell Financial Strategies Group LLC*

“ We got reacquainted with SJJ about 10 years ago after a lengthy hiatus away from the school. Sarah and I sat down and discussed ways to make a meaningful impact on kids' lives, as we never had children. We decided to start making a financial commitment to SJJ that would allow students who might not otherwise have an opportunity of attending the school because of financial hardship, a means of attending SJJ. We have met the young men that we have had an opportunity to help, and it just brings a smile to our faces knowing we had a positive impact on their education. ”

—Todd '83 and Sarah Mierzwiak
President/Agency Principal, Westgate Insurance Agency

“ We give back because of the positive impact SJJ made in my life. I have been blessed and feel an obligation to give back. ”

—Sean '88 and Carolyn Savage
*Financial Advisor,

“ St. John's provides not only a great education for boys, but also sets the culture for them to recognize the importance of relationships both with others and in the community the school serves. ”

—Joe '86 and Kim Sofo
Owner/President, Sofo Foods

“ St. John's Jesuit made all the difference in my life. It set me up to succeed. Providing a scholarship to a young man who may not otherwise have the opportunity to attend SJJ hopefully delivers that same impact. ”

—Matt '78 and Adria Mossing
Retired, Former Supply Chain Professional, Kraft Foods Group and E2E Supply Chain Solutions

“ As a strong supporter of Catholic education and more specifically Jesuit education, I became involved at SJJ when my son Ryan attended. Having graduated from a Jesuit high school, I felt that experience was one of the most impactful in my life. My parents had sacrificed greatly to provide me with that education, and I wanted the same for my son. I became interested in the stadium project a number of years ago and ultimately stayed involved as a committee member and later a board member. Our work on behalf of our students is important and meaningful in all respects. Additionally, SJJ is fortunate to have such dedicated and exceptionally competent staff and leadership.”

—Tom Shields

Retired/Former Director of Sales for Bericap North America

“ I feel I will never be able to repay all that SJJ has given me. I left SJJ in 1980 totally prepared for college and life and feel an obligation to give so that other young men have this same opportunity . As opposed to many other worthy causes; I can see the direct impact of my philanthropy on the physical campus , human capital, and, of course, our students.”

—Jeff '80 and Carol Savage
Owner, Toledo Transformation.com

“ Our family foundation supports Christian youth education and ways to help children better their lives. We believe SJJ and the 20/20 program give educational and Christian opportunities to students who have a desire to change their lives.”

—Craig and Jane Williams
President, Designetics Cares Foundation

“ I believe that St. John's Jesuit gives every student the opportunity to get a comprehensive and well-rounded education. We were very pleased when our son, Brian, expressed his desire to attend St. John's. He thrived in the challenging educational, social, and sports environment of St. John's. We were so proud when he graduated and decided to further his education at OSU.”

In 1962, I was fortunate to be able to attend the Jesuit St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati. At that time, my parents could not afford the tuition, but fortunately, a friend of my father agreed to cover my tuition. He requested that if I ever had the chance, I should do the same for someone else in need. After my wife, Willma, died in 2002, and my children had completed their education, established their careers, and gotten married, I felt it was time to fulfill that request. In that regard, I decided to honor my late wife by establishing the Willma G. Schloss Scholarship Endowment in her name.”

SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENTS CONNECT THE PAST TO THE

Supporters of St. John's Jesuit can give to the school in several ways. The availability of more than 150 named scholarships is witness to the tradition and incredible generosity of the community. Every gift made in memoriam has a story impacted by Catholic education and formed in the Jesuit tradition as a Man for Others. The Kevin Lyddy '81 Memorial Scholarship is no exception. This May will mark 40 years since his passing, yet his memory is carried on at St. John's Jesuit. The scholarship was founded in 2016 through the loving efforts of his close friend, Tony DiSalle '82, and his sister, Kim (Lyddy) DiSalle, as a way to make a lasting impact in the lives of students who desire a St. John's Jesuit education but cannot afford it.

THE KEVIN LYDDY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP '81

In May 1981, Kevin Lyddy died in a motorcycle accident just days before he was to graduate from St. John's. While it's hard to believe that Kevin has been gone for 40 years, his short life served as an example for us all of how to live.

Kevin was fun, loving, protective, and outgoing. He excelled in athletics, so much so that many years after his death, St. John's awarded the most accomplished athlete of each graduating class "The Kevin Lyddy Award." While he was an intense competitor in sports, off the field or mat he was an approachable, humble, cheerful, fun-loving son, brother, and friend. Kevin knew that "his gifts" were not his own; they were from God and were to be shared with others. He had the humble heart of Christ and would do anything for somebody in need.

Kevin loved to help guide and teach younger people. Some of his best memories were coaching and counseling kids. In the summers while at St. John's, he coached and mentored kids at a local orphanage run by Toledo Catholic Charities and at a summer camp. His plan was to attend The Ohio State University for college and become a teacher and coach. While he couldn't live out that dream physically here on earth, his spirit and dream live with us today as he continues to help younger people. His family established a scholarship endowment fund at St. John's in his name. The Kevin Lyddy '81 Memorial Scholarship has helped a student based on need at St. John's Jesuit every year since it was established. In the spirit of Kevin, a true Man for Others, the scholarship criteria is simply need. Kevin remains there for these young men and continues to help them today through this scholarship.

PARENT GIVING

Parents choose to invest in their son's education at St. John's Jesuit High School & Academy for many reasons. Some want a school with a strong faith-based education. Some want their sons in a all-male or academically sound environment. Some are alums and want their son to receive the same education and foundation as they had.

We work tirelessly with families to ensure they can afford this education. What many might not know is that the cost of tuition does not fully cover the expense to educate each student. This gap is covered by fundraising, including generous gifts given by parents beyond tuition dollars. For those who are capable, it is an investment in someone's future, a way to keep the building and grounds state-of-the-art, a chance to bring leading-edge programs to the school, and a hundred other ways to benefit their son and future Titans.

If you would like to discuss parent giving, contact Nick Vargas '06, Director of Advancement, at (419) 720-0770 or nvargas@sjtitans.org.

“As parents, we couldn't be happier with the education and spiritual support St. John's Jesuit has given to our son. We are firm believers in the effectiveness of an all-boys learning environment. St. John's has set the standard in this regard, and we want to do what we can to sustain exceptional programming. It's our belief that giving back to the school will only enhance the school's capabilities to do even more for our son, as well as future students. Long-term contribution is important to keep the school moving forward in a positive direction.”

—Dave '98 and Lauren Dzierwa

“ SJJ reached out to talk about the reasons behind our giving. This discussion with Mr. Savona and Nick Vargas was helpful because it allowed us to see the vision of the future that SJJ is considering. In a time full of people looking for instant gratification and social media exposure, SJJ is quietly looking at long-term plans in an effort to assist those in need and those who will be in need in the future. This mindset guides St. John's as an institution, and it makes it the finest college prep high school in the region. Not only is SJJ creating leaders in the present, but its mission is also looking beyond tomorrow, which keeps SJJ in a league of its own in not just Jesuit education, but all education.

Our gift will surely be added to many others working to keep SJJ a leader in creating scholars and well-rounded young men. As a graduate and now as parents of two SJJ students, we feel an investment in this notion will hopefully help others get access to the SJJ education and experience.

The decision to give is always difficult as day-to-day financial commitments are never-ending. An SJJ education is not inexpensive. Giving just a small amount a month, a quarter, a year not only feels good, but it is something that ensures that boys who do not even know it yet will have the opportunity to take part in the St. John's experience. It ensures that the experience is one that is always growing and expanding so that it never gets stale or outdated. ”

— Michael '90 and Megan Loisel

THE YOUNG ALUMNI COUNCIL CONTINUES TO GROW AND THRIVE

The Young Alumni Council (YAC) has steadily grown in membership and importance to the future of St. John's Jesuit since 2018. Common to all members is a deep love for their experience as a Titan, as well as gratitude for the mission of Jesuit education. Members must not exceed age 40 and pledge a gift at the President's Council level, which is $1,500 per year for four years. The group meets quarterly, but also is called upon to support activities of the Office of

"SJJ had a profound impact on the person that I am today. My fellow students, as well as teachers, coaches, and administrators taught me valuable lessons: what it meant to be disciplined, focused, and organized; what it meant to be part of a team; what it meant to work toward a goal; what it meant to be respectful; and what it took to be respected. I joined the YAC to connect with other committed alumni to provide resources such that SJJ students of present and future might have the opportunity to be inspired to achieve their greatest potential."

"I am committed to giving back to the institutions and organizations that have helped mold me into the man I am today. SJJ is a special place that helps turn boys not only into young men, but young men who serve and who strive for greatness—true men for others. SJJ is an enormous asset to our community, and I will do everything I can to allow for other young men to take advantage of what I was privileged enough to experience throughout my years there."

"St. John's provided me many opportunities and is a big part of the reason I have been able to find success. Joining the YAC is a way to give back and hopefully allow other students to have the same opportunities."

A LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Friends of St. John's Jesuit:

The most remarkable occurrence at St. John's Jesuit during the 2020-2021 school year was that the school stayed open!

The Administration, the faculty, and staff believe that in-person education is far superior to virtual, and our thanks go out to those folks for their tenacity, courage, and resolve. School began in early August, picked up again in January, and we are scheduled to close out the school year in session in May. Again, our congratulations to those who made it possible.

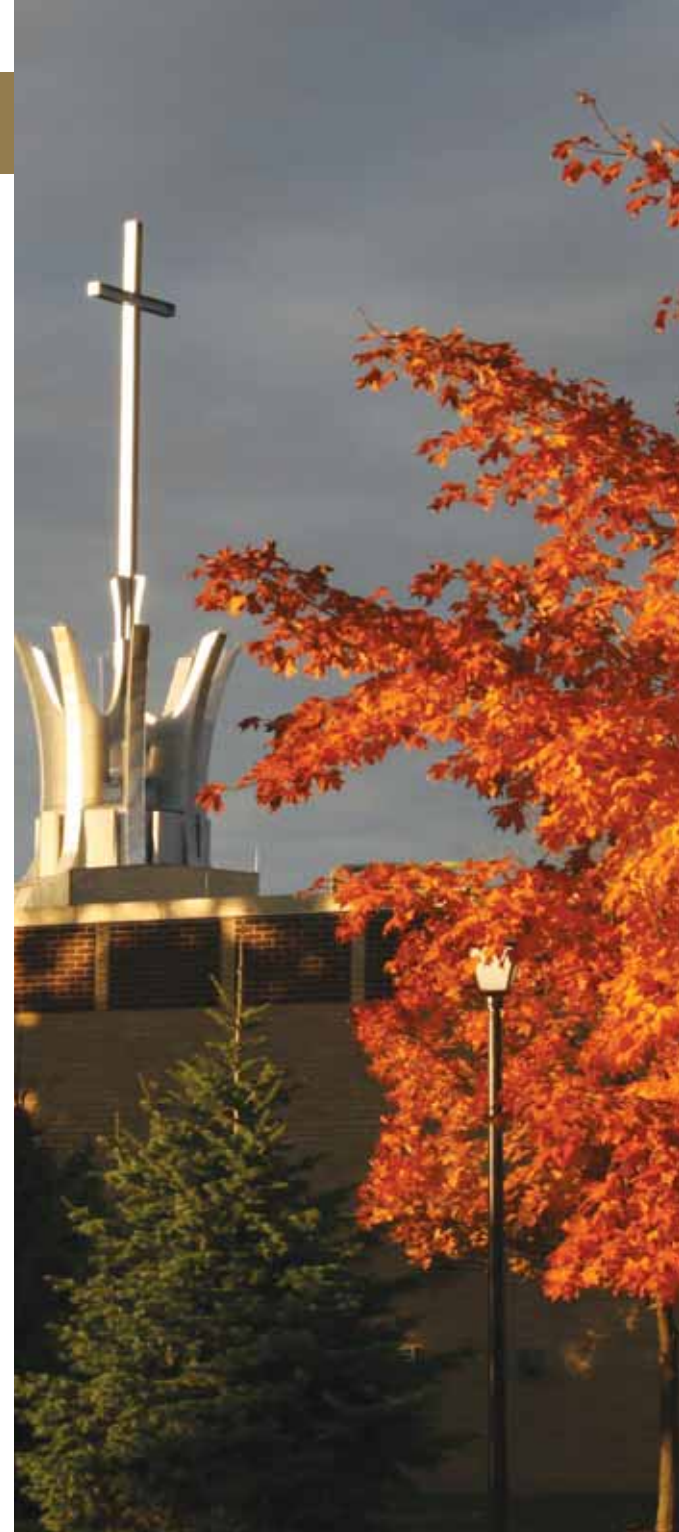

Critical to the success of the year was not only the academic, but the spiritual development the faculty and staff accomplished. Retreats at every grade level carried on. Community engagement was limited, but service was made possible through the creative efforts of a Virtual Christian Service Lab. Our mission of forming Men for Others endured a difficult year indeed.

In sports, our football team made the playoffs for the fourth straight year, the soccer and golf teams won the TRAC and their coaches Greg McElroy '87 and Mussa Orra '02, respectively, won Coach of the Year honors. Our basketball team was co-champion of the TRAC, and Coach Mike Schoen '05 was honored with the Blade's Coach of the Year.

Our thanks to you for your prayers and assistance. Remember please, the cost of our Jesuit education exceeds the tuition, so please be generous.

Ready. Set. Summer.

Summer Camps 2021!

BE A TITAN!

Register at sjtoledo.org

We look forward to welcoming students in various grade levels to one or more of our 2021 summer camps. COVID-19 protocols and safety precautions apply, and many camps have limited space to ensure social distancing. The health and safety of visitors, faculty, staff, and coaches is our highest priority. Go Titans!
